OSTRICH LOGIC.

"When I can't see danger there is no "When I can't see danger there is no danger." That's the logic of the ostrich which hides its head and exposes its body to the hunter. There are not a few people who seem to have gone to the ostrich to learn logic. The most dangerous enemies of humanity are the enemies which can't be seen, the disease breeding microbes which infect the blood. It is harder to get the microbe out of the blood than to keep it out, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does both by puri-

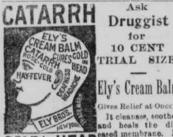

does both, by puri-fying the blood and then keeping it pure.
If there are eruptions on the skin, boils, pim-ples, sores or other signs of impure blood, use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discov ery, which will purify the blood and cure the eruptions which come from it.

"My blood was all out of order, and I had to go to the doctor," writes Mrs. James R. Moss, New Condon, Stanly Co., Nc. "He gave me medicine which helped me for a short time. In the writer of 189, I got worse than I had ever been. My tonsils were enlarged and my neck swollen all out of shape; my throat was sore and I could not cure it. My husband went for the doctor, out he gave me no encouragement. He helped me for twelve months, when I heard of a lady whose condition was like mine, who was taking rour medicine and was getting well. So I seem that it is not make the medicine and began taking it. In one week I was able to do my cooking. When the medicine I could sit up only a few minutes at a time, and I could rest or sleep norty a little while at a time. My throat was so core at times I could not even swalkow sweet milk, and my tonish were full of little eating tores. My left side was swollen out of shape and I could not get well, but three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, three pottles of his 'Pellets,' three bottles of Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery, three pottles of his 'Pellets,' three bottles of Dr. Sage's Clatarrh Remedy and the use of salt water did he work and cured me."

WEDDED AT FUNERAL OF HIS FIRST WIFE

An occurrence that took place at a small country chapel across the ridge some four miles sout meast of Wyoming, W. Va, on Friday goes to prove thet truth is sometimes stranger than fiction, and in which the altar and the grave, or a funeral and a wedding, were strangely interwined. The wife of Will Markell died some three weeks ago, leaving three small children, the youngest of whom was a babe of eleven days, all three of them being girls. As is the custom with courtry folk there in the mountains, the burish took place shorily after death, and the date of the funeral was set at a hter time.

Friday the friends of the late Mrs. Markell assembled in the little chapel to pay their last sad respects to the de-parted wife, and the mini-the extelled her virtues and consoled the mourners with the thought that while she could not come back to them, they should so live as to meet her in that resim beyond these voices, where there is peace, taking his text from the book of Revelation: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death."

As the audience was dismissed with the headlester and which the beneficiary and which the conditions.

the benediction, and while they were raiding their bowed heads preparatory t) leave-taking, Mr. Markell, the chief mourner, stepped up to the pulpit and handed the mini-ter a document.

-All was silence and a breathless curiosity pervaded the little sanctuary which was accentuated when Mis-Haidee Richards, a comely girl of 22, left her pew and advanced to the chancel rail.

The minister, with his voice betraying the strain under which he was labor-ing, requested that the audience again be seated, when he announced to them the document he held in his hand was a license permitt og any ordained min-ter of the Gospel to unite in wedlock William Markell and Haides Richards, and that he had been asked to perform the marriage rite at that time.

In the presence of the congregation, now t toroughly filled with consternatranspired that it was the dying request of the deceased that her school mate and closest friend, in the person of presty Miss Haidee, should on the day of her funeral become the bride of her late busband, and thus be permitted a mother's rights to care for and rear her motherless little ones.

As the couple are highly respectable and have lived there for years without a stain upon their character in any way, their sensational wedding has been given the sanction of public approval, and by its peculiar strangeness has caused no end of comment

SOME ONE ELSE GOT HIS BRIDE .-Harry Hill, a railroad man of Louisville, Ky., went to English, Ind., to marry a girl who had been his sweetbeart for years, but he returned to Louisville Sunday night with another girl as his bride. When he arrived at girl as his bride. When he arrived at English he found that his fiancee had married another man, so he selected a girl from his first sweetheart's bridal party and married her. He said: "I did not catch the noon train and it was about 8 o'clock when I got there. The wedding was to be in the afternoon and of course, I was late. But that did not cut much les, with the girl. She just married another man and they were having a bigh old time when I got there. Well, it was pratty tough on me to walk in there and find another man married to my girl. There were a few guests there and among them was a girl I used to know pretty well. I told her how it was and she saw it the same way, and it was not much trouble to get a license and less to get a preacher, and the whole thing was over in a little while and I'm hap-py. That's all there is to it."

THE KING'S CORONATION .- Details of the coronation are gradually coming up for the royal decision, and nearly all the essential points will be decided before the departure of the King for Paris and the Riviera. Great efforts have Window been made to shorten the service at Westmineter Abbey. I(the ecclesist cal authorities were allowed to have their way the service would occupy five or six hours, with an official requiremen that the spectators should be in their places an hour or two in advance. The Litany will certainly be dropped, and the musical portion of the service will probably be curt illed. Other changes are proposed, but there is a tendency to magnify the importance of every detail. The Abbey service and the royal drive through the metropolis are the only fixtures. The Country orders solicited and satisfaction guarantoed.
